

So what's the attraction?

"Australians have long had a love affair with residential property. Our desire for its inbuilt security has given us one of the highest levels of home ownership per capita in the world today. It is a must have asset that has stood the test of time."

The Passion & Pride Of Ownership

Your home is an invaluable asset that for some is a status symbol of personal success whilst for most is simply a place of sanctuary, lifestyle and family comfort. Building a new home should be an exciting experience and inevitably involves finding the right home design to suit your land selection. New Home Package Central together with its "partners of industry" provides a fresh and unique approach to home design with a focus on modern, composite construction offering superior value, flexibility of design and individual style – ensuring that your new home is everything you dreamed it could be.

A Simple Buying Process

Whether you're a first home buyer or a seasoned homeowner, the process of buying land and building can be a daunting task. New Home Package Central provides a complete property service from the location and evaluation of suitable quality land stocks to the design and construction of individually customised plans. We have developed working relationships with a number of new home builders and a group of independent developers who utilise our expertise in the areas of residential project marketing and property sales. The synergies created by these associations enable us to provide an innovative yet simple purchasing process, informative and transparent.

Your Own Personal Project Manager

Speak to anyone who has experienced the process of building and often their findings are a combination of excitement, confusion, stress and ultimately compromise. From concept to completion, we will work in a hands-on role using key planning and design strategies in the customisation of your new home. You will always feel like your an integral part of the process and our promise to you is to deliver the most inclusive home package in the market today!

Quality, Individuality & Extraordinary Value

We offer a range of affordable, uniquely designed homes available in single, double and split level options. All our homes feature uniquely styled interior design themes as well as a mature landscaping plan – this will ensure that your new home is everything you dreamed it could be. It's simple, we just offer you better inclusions up front - no confusion about variations and optional extras – just better specifications and value from the start! Our homes are all architecturally designed that you may choose to tailor to suit your specific lifestyle needs and budgetary requirements.

Flexibility Of Design & Modern Style

New Home Package Central combines its own experience in the new home sector with the design expertise provided by its creative team. We're looking to fulfil a need for new home buyers who want their homes to make a statement - our objective is to ensure your home is unique in its street appeal. We seek always to capture today's modern styles and believe that our emphasis on the optimisation of internal building space will ensure that your home is more functional and "liveable" – providing affordable style and individuality. We know what will work on your block and we are eager to help create the perfect home for your evolving lifestyle needs.
